

Article

Amazing Hotels Of 2008

Detail:

Extravagant vacations are never completed without mentioning the exotic and brightest hotels. If you manage to stay in one of these hotels, then it will truly be an experience worth cherishing through out your life.

The best hotels of the year 2008 are:

Four seasons resort lanai, the lodge at koele

Four Seasons shares a unique atmosphere, ambiance and perspective of natural beauty of Hawaii in its own ways. The resort is hidden centrally in the highlights of this private island called Lanai. It offers peaceful ambiance; tranquility and soothing surroundings with two world-class golf courses in the premises itself. The resort offers exciting and amazing adventures on land as well as sea.

The oriental, bangkok, thailand

A five star hotel situated in the premises of Bangkok, The Oriental Bangkok was founded in the year 1876. The hotel is very famous for its extravagant service that is responsible for placing it in the forefront of being among the best hotels of the world.

Joseph Conrad, Somerset Maugham and Noel Coward are some of those well-known authors who have stayed at the Oriental. Other famous personalities include Neil Armstrong, George H. W. Bush, Elizabeth Taylor, Princess Diana and Prince Charles, Jacques Chirac, Lauren Bacall, Queen Sofia of Spain, Omar Sharif and the list goes on and on.

Hotel bel-air, los angeles, california

It is a five star boutique hotel that has 91 rooms to offer you the most amazing service of all times. The hotel was opened in the year 1946 and since its opening, it has served many dignitaries, celebrities and heads of many states.

The hotel will be unveiling a 10,000-day spa that would feature Jacuzzis, spa suites and world-class treatments of all kinds. Currently Hassanal Bolkiaah who is the ruling Sultan of Brunei owns it.

Little palm island resort and spa, little torch key, florida

The resort offers a blissful ambiance all around. It is an internationally acclaimed private island that is called paradise for a number of exotic reasons. It is listed among the best resorts of the world by magazines called 'Conde Nast Traveler and Travel+Leisure.'

The resort is only accessible by a plane or boat as it an awesome world that is full of unlimited pleasures that are still hidden to human life. It offers extra spacious suites and amazing verandas with a breath taking ocean view. It would be the perfect place to spend your romantic encounters in the bliss of paradise.

Alvear palace hotel

This magnificent hotel is located in Recoleta, Argentina. It is widely famous for its majestic interiors and amazing decoration, which differentiates it from others in terms of style and luxury. This feature is accompanied by an excellent combination of technology, services and the hospitality offered by the staff. You will surely experience true euphoria when it comes to the hospitality, elegance and essence that are provided in your service.

So don't just satisfy yourself by looking at the names of these bright hotels or going through the images in different websites, but go and experience their services that will take you in some other world.

(end of excerpt)